Alma,

I'm sending an email following our brief conversation today. First and foremost, I hope you are well and recovering.

It is with much disappointment that we are unable to move forward with the textile recycling contract presented. Due to an unforeseen circumstance that transpired in the last week, quite unexpectedly, my regional manager and I were very recently informed. Directions were given, meetings were held and I traveled back yesterday. We have no option for taking on the contract at this time, and for that I am very sorry.

Thank you for giving Planet Aid the opportunity to recycle textiles with Rutherford County. I really looked forward to working with you. Alma, your excitement about recycling is inspiring. When you are well enough and when I can discuss, I would like to talk with you about the matter.

Best,
Gena
